Planning No controversial planning.

Correspondence Following correspondence Postwatch Scotland : Health Council news :
EL Tenants newsletter : ELC Minutes : letter from Councillor Currie re New Winton
Spokes : Assoc of Community Councils agm.

The last had been attended by chairman and treasurer. Discussion ranged from ELC Councillors attendance at community councils to grants for Christmas lighting etc,

Any Other Competent Business Event being organised in village for 25 year anniversary of Jock Taylor's death. Publicity out but community council has had no prior notice of this Winton Walks – the Yetlands bridge not marked but it is a right of way. Matter being attended to.
Complaints concerning potholes – ELC via S.Baxter to be written to Water running down hill at Glenkinchie.
New Winton : Winton Court not adopted by council, originally as big machinery unable to reach area. Chips have been laid near hall, organised by local people.
Nicky Neighbour spoke to schoolchildren about the community council and felt some of them could contribute to newsletter.
Quad bikers still being nuisance – police should be told if intolerable.
Bus shelter still in awkward position for passing pedestrians – S.Baxter to be reminded
John Henderson had attended interesting meeting called by Friends of the Earth on planning.
Choked drains etc at New Winton had been attended to.
School path to be tidied up.

The ELC councillors present will look into some of the matters raised and will be sent copy of correspondence to the council.

Date of next Meeting Wednesday 29th August, 2007, at 7.30 p.m. in the Trevelyan Hall.
